10. PRIVACY NOTICE FOR SKILLS BOOTCAMPS

Who we are

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use your personal information for the purposes of evaluating the Skills Bootcamps programme.

For the purposes of relevant data protection legislation, the Department for Education (DfE) is the data controller for personal information processed for this research. More information about how the DfE handles personal information is published here:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/department-for-education/about/personal-information-charter>

Why we collect your personal information

We are collecting data on Skills Bootcamp applicants, and participants to help the DfE understand how well the courses are working, investigating individuals' concerns regarding their course and if individuals are achieving their outcomes. This is important because it allows us to be transparent about how government spends public money and measures the impact that policies are having, as well as helping us make improvements to future training courses. This data also helps us check if the people who are on the course do complete the course and ensures that the correct amount of funding is paid.

The nature of your personal data we will be using

As part of the data collection we are asking for your personal data;

- national insurance number,
- first name,
- surname,

- postcode and
- date of birth
- education and qualifications information
- earnings and employment information
- benefits information
- caring responsibilities

The special category data we will be processing includes:

- gender
- disability and
- ethnicity

As part of our work to evaluate the effectiveness of Skills Bootcamps in supporting people to gain employment and higher incomes we will link this data to records on education and training, income, employment and benefits which are held by the Department for Education, the Department of Work and Pensions and Her Majesty's revenue and customs. This is to evaluate the programme's overall impact. For more information on this, please look at our Privacy Notice Q&A.

Our legal basis for collecting your personal information.

We collect personal information only where we need to and law permits. In order for our use of your personal data to be lawful, we need to meet conditions in the data protection legislation. For the purpose of this programme, the relevant condition(s) that we are meeting are:
